WE, AS THE TREE, HAVE SURVIVED

A tree,
Old and tall,
Still green after years and years,
It has survived.
It has survived the storm and sun,
The good and the bad;
Just as our nation has survived
For the last two hundred years.
We've struggled through the storm of depression and war,
The sun of the gay nineties and the roaring twenties,
The good and the bad,
We have survived.

Our tree, as do all,
Started as a small, young sapling.
Our nation, as did our tree,
Started as an unexplored wilderness.
But like our tree,
It grew and expanded.
We now had thirteen buds, thirteen colonies.
But we were still in the prime of life.
Little did we know the hardships still in store,
The heartaches,
The depressions,
The wars.
We fought and struggled
As did our little tree, still a sapling.
It fought for life.
The older trees tried to shut him out.
He had high hopes,
He reached for the sky and caught the sun.
Just as bigger, older trees tries to strangle him,
The more experienced nations
Tried to smother us
So we would wither and die.
We had a good start.
We were on our way,
And we would go far.
We fought for independence
And we got it.
But yet, deep inside,
A little worm was eating us away,
A worm of unrest and dissatisfaction.
This little worm brought about a great civil war.

But, as always,
We destroyed that little worm
Before he could destroy us.
We were, by now, a steady firm tree
With good strong roots.
But could those roots survive yet more war?
The two world wars,
The Korean war, the Vietnam war?
We have survived;
We now have two hundred rings on our trunk,
With still many more to add.

The trunk
Stood firm and erect,

Holding its branches high towards heaven,
Its fifty branches with its millions
Of people, of leaves and buds.
Bugs occasionally infested the tree
As did the depression and Communist scares,
But it survived.
It is standing tall
As the Statue of Liberty,
Trying and succeeding, to look as though
It has as much power
And then some.

The roots
Support the trunk, the branches, the leaves
Just as our government supports us,
The people.
It keeps us in the right
So we may not stray or die needlessly.
It keeps us straight;
We should use our tree as an example.

As you see,
Our tree has survived,
And so will the nation.
But, unlike our tree,
A nation with a past history such as ours
Cannot fall.
It cannot die.
It may, on occasion, wither slightly,
But our firm roots will hold us upright
As it has for the last two hundred years
And the many, many years to come.
It will continue,
And so will we,
Learning from our precious memories
And our nation's history.

So walk with your heads held high.
Be proud,
For we are a community, a nation,
And together we will commemorate the past,
Celebrate the present,
Commit ourselves to the future.

Remember,
Look forward today
To tomorrow's future.
We as individuals will pass on,
But we must continue passing on
Our wisdom,
our knowledge,
So the nation
With its youth
And new leaves
May forever live
In peace, happiness, contentment.

We, as the tree, have survived.

- Brenda Anibas

HISTORY OF AUGUSTA HIGH SCHOOL

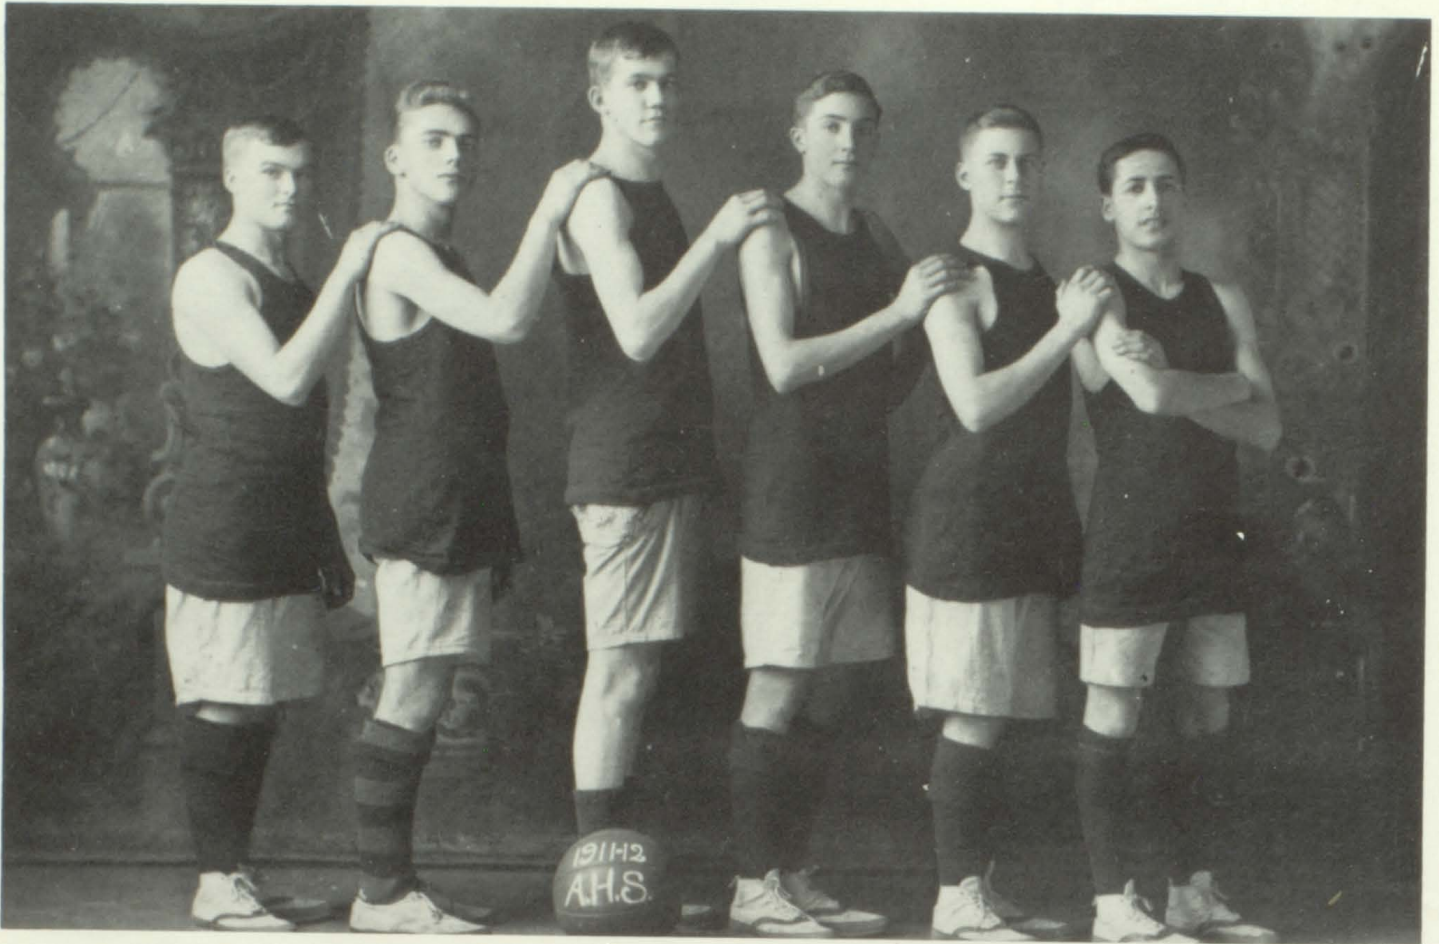

In 1873 a frame building was erected on Main Street where the high school now stands. It was a graded school until a number of years later when it was organized as a high school. In 1880 two people graduated from this school - the first two.

In 1903, a brick building was erected to replace the old frame school. In 1918 the annexes of the high school were built. On May 21, 1921, the building was partly destroyed by fire.

In 1954, a new addition was built to provide a gym, and additional classrooms. In 1972, a vocational building was erected near the elementary building to provide room for auto mechanics, ag and industrial arts.

Classrooms have been shifted from time to time and walls were removed to enlarge rooms, but basically the building has remained the same until the Industrial Commission condemned it last year and now we can look to the future and a new building located at the site of the vocational building.

BOYS BASKETBALL 1911-12

TEAM MEMBERS:

Clayton Chrysler, Donavon O'Brien, Clarence Pfefferkorn, Esle Hiltz, Willis Teare, Rob Levy.

Basketball has always been the leading activity at Augusta, and is today occupying its full share of interest in the school. The six men played aggressive ball, thus leading to a very successful season. Their efforts proved to be fruitful and rewarding, both for the players and for the fans. All of the games played during the season of the 1911-12 were well attended and a great deal of yelling and singing took place.

1905 AUGUSTA BAND

MR. HATCH, PRINCIPAL and DIRECTOR.

This year, 1905, the Augusta High School Senior Band under the direction of Mr. Hatch, who also held the position of Principal. The 15 piece band had 2 drummers, 2 clarinets, 3 trombones, and 4 cornets. Mr. Hatch helped the band out at times by playing his clarinet. All in all, we can say that they had a very musical year.

STUDENTS CELEBRATE BICENTENNIAL

This year a new organization was added to the list of extra-curricular activities. The Bicentennial Club has a total membership of 118. Because of the large size, they found it almost impossible to meet as one group so they divided into smaller committees, each with its own chairman. The costume committee successfully planned and sewed "fife and drum" costumes for three volunteers to be worn at the home basketball games. Also planned for the games were, the Bicentennial pom-pom girls, with their red, white, and blue pom-poms, who performed with the assistance of the pep band. The art committee designed and painted a large map of the United States in the lower hall across from the teachers' lounge. Fire hydrants and garbage cans were painted and Fourth of July festivities were being planned.

SPECIAL TEACHERS HELP

Many people play a part in our education without being in front of the classroom. Mrs. Ruth Harden, guidance counselor, helps students plan their schedules and deal with many problems of all students. Mrs. Kathryn Bugher runs the library. These two people started a career awareness program this year where the ins and outs of many careers are presented to the students. Mr. Norman Hoyme presents traffic education behind the wheel. Mr. Ron Doering helps students special needs. He teaches as well as guides their schedules.

VOCATIONAL COURSES LEAD TO A CAREER

Three fellows lead the learning activities at the Vocational Building. Mr. David Gavin teaches the Voc. Ag. classes as well as having home visits to help with problems arising in their Ag projects. Mr. David Rybak leads the industrial arts people as well as American Industry and pre-building trades. Mr. Don Anderson teaches the Auto Mechanics capstone course which deals with other schools besides ours, as well as some classes for just A.H.S. students . . .

FINE ARTS SHOW CREATIVITY

Mr. Gary Thorsen is head of the art department. He has helped bring out the creativity in many students. He also teaches night classes to the adults in the community.

This year we started a bicentennial club, which organized a halftime flag carrying trio. Lisa Fouts on Picciao, Al Tallman on drums, and Tom Grunewald as the flag carrier. They entertained at basketball games.

The Augusta senior high band is conducted by Mr. Donald Young. The band has an annual Christmas concert, a spring concert plus this year they are having a bicentennial concert. In the spring, students are busy getting ready for solo-ensemble. The choir is conducted this year by Mr. Ronald Gard.

This year the Juniors picked the famous football star Alan Deaton to represent them on the Homecoming court. He picked the football sports fan "of the year" Janice Hoffman. We're sure they had a nice time and feel the Juniors made a perfect choice.

The Student Council made some changes in the preparations of the floats for Homecoming this year. One was that the classes and clubs could not exceed the amount of $25.00 to be used for the float. Since the Juniors didn't want to spend much money, and wanted to change the tradition of making a float on a hay wagon, they decided to gather up all the tricycles they could, and ride them in the parade dressed up as airplane pilots flying airplanes, with the captions "We'll bomb 'em," and "We bombed 'em." Although they didn't place in the competition we feel they had a good idea. Also, they have their Junior Prom, and their last year of high school to look forward to.

GOOD LUCK!

This year's sophomore class is very active. They have sponsored a record hop with Scott Victor Christensen of WEAQ Radio station. They plan to go bowling and rollerskating. They are very active in many clubs and sports. They have a lot of class spirit and are very interested in what is going on in the world around them. They are starting on their way to be a very good, and important asset to the community.

The Sophomore float was called "We'll race 'em to a Victory." It didn't place this year but there is always next year to look forward to.

THE STORY

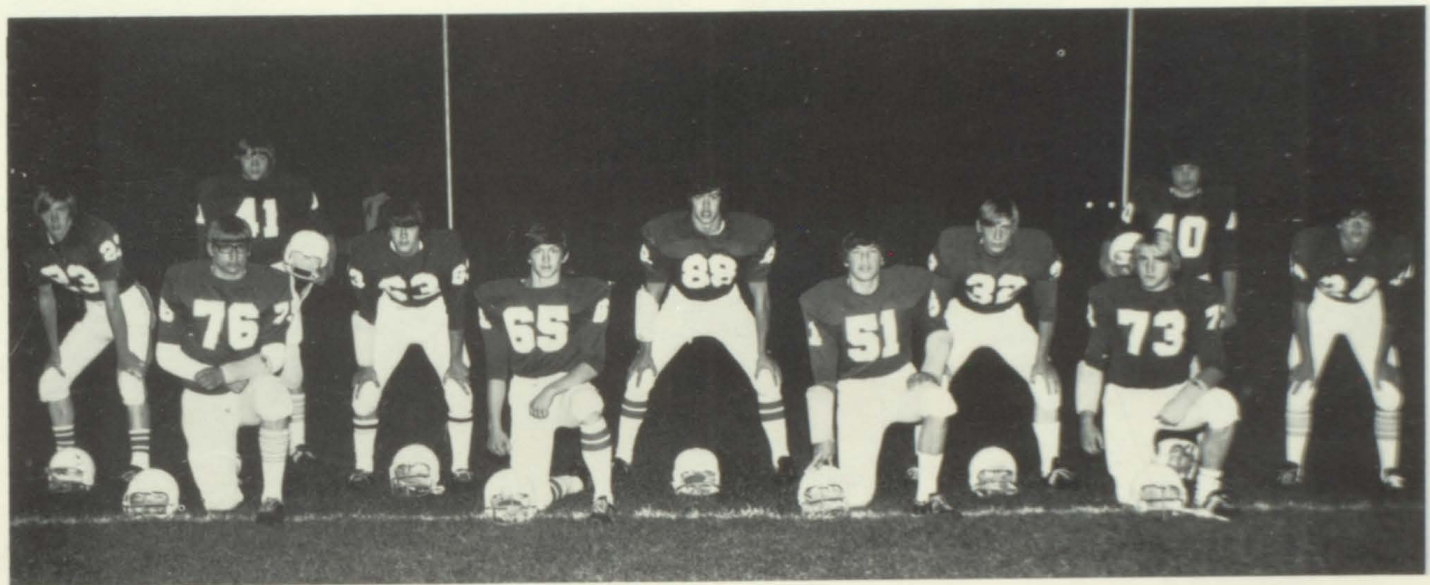

This year Coach Osborn started out the season with a young, inexperienced team, but as the season progressed they were maturing into a contending force in the Dairyland Conference. Two big conference wins early in the season were dampened by the loss of two key Beaver players. Nevertheless the team gave it their all - though losing the next five games to tough conference teams in some very close and exciting games.

This year the Beavers were fortunate in sending four wrestlers on to the sectional tournaments. The four included Keith Rupprecht, Roger Weiss, Ken Bohl, and John Pettis. Keith placed fourth.

Keith Rupprecht at 132 and Ken Bohl at heavy-weight were both chosen for the Dairyland Conference All-Star first team. Bill Gabler was picked for the second team.

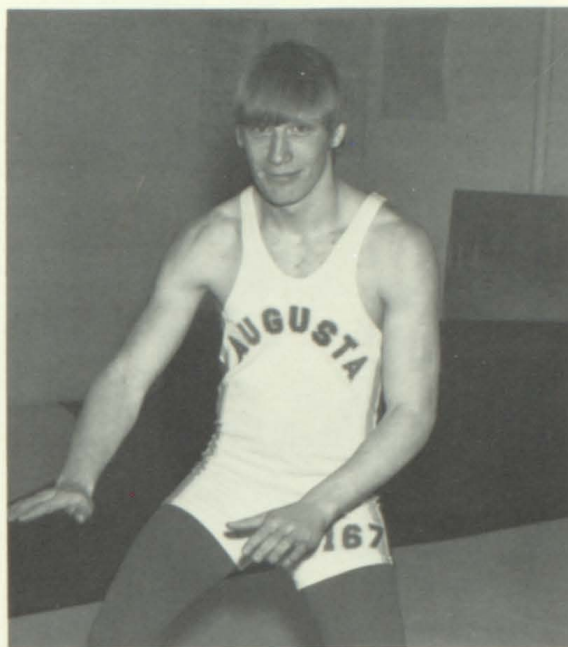

The wrestlers finished 2nd in conference with a 6-1 record.

CHEERLEADERS ENCOURAGE SPIRIT

This year the football cheerleading squad was a combination of both the wrestling and basketball cheerleaders. When the season ended, they each pursued their own sport. Their spirit and enthusiasm was contagious because soon they had a large group of Beaver Backers at each game. The cheerleaders' efforts were not wasted as they received appreciation and gratitude from the players, the students, the coaches, and the public.

This year volleyball has been offered to Augusta High School girls for the second consecutive season. Volleyball is now a conference wide sport and growing in popularity among the schools.

The girls were coached this season by Mrs. Pulse, which for her was her first year in this sport.

Gymnastics is a relatively new sport, and each year expanding with young ladies brimming with vitality and the endurance to cope with the many needed hours of practice. This is Augusta's second year of competition, and only one of the two other schools in the conference that have gymnastics. This year the girls have 4 away meets, at Independence, Cadott, Alma and Arcadia. In competition the girls do compulsory routines which consists of four events: the uneven parallel bars, vault, beam, and floor exercise. The girls are scored individually and at the end of the meet, team points are added from the results, much the same way as track scoring is done.

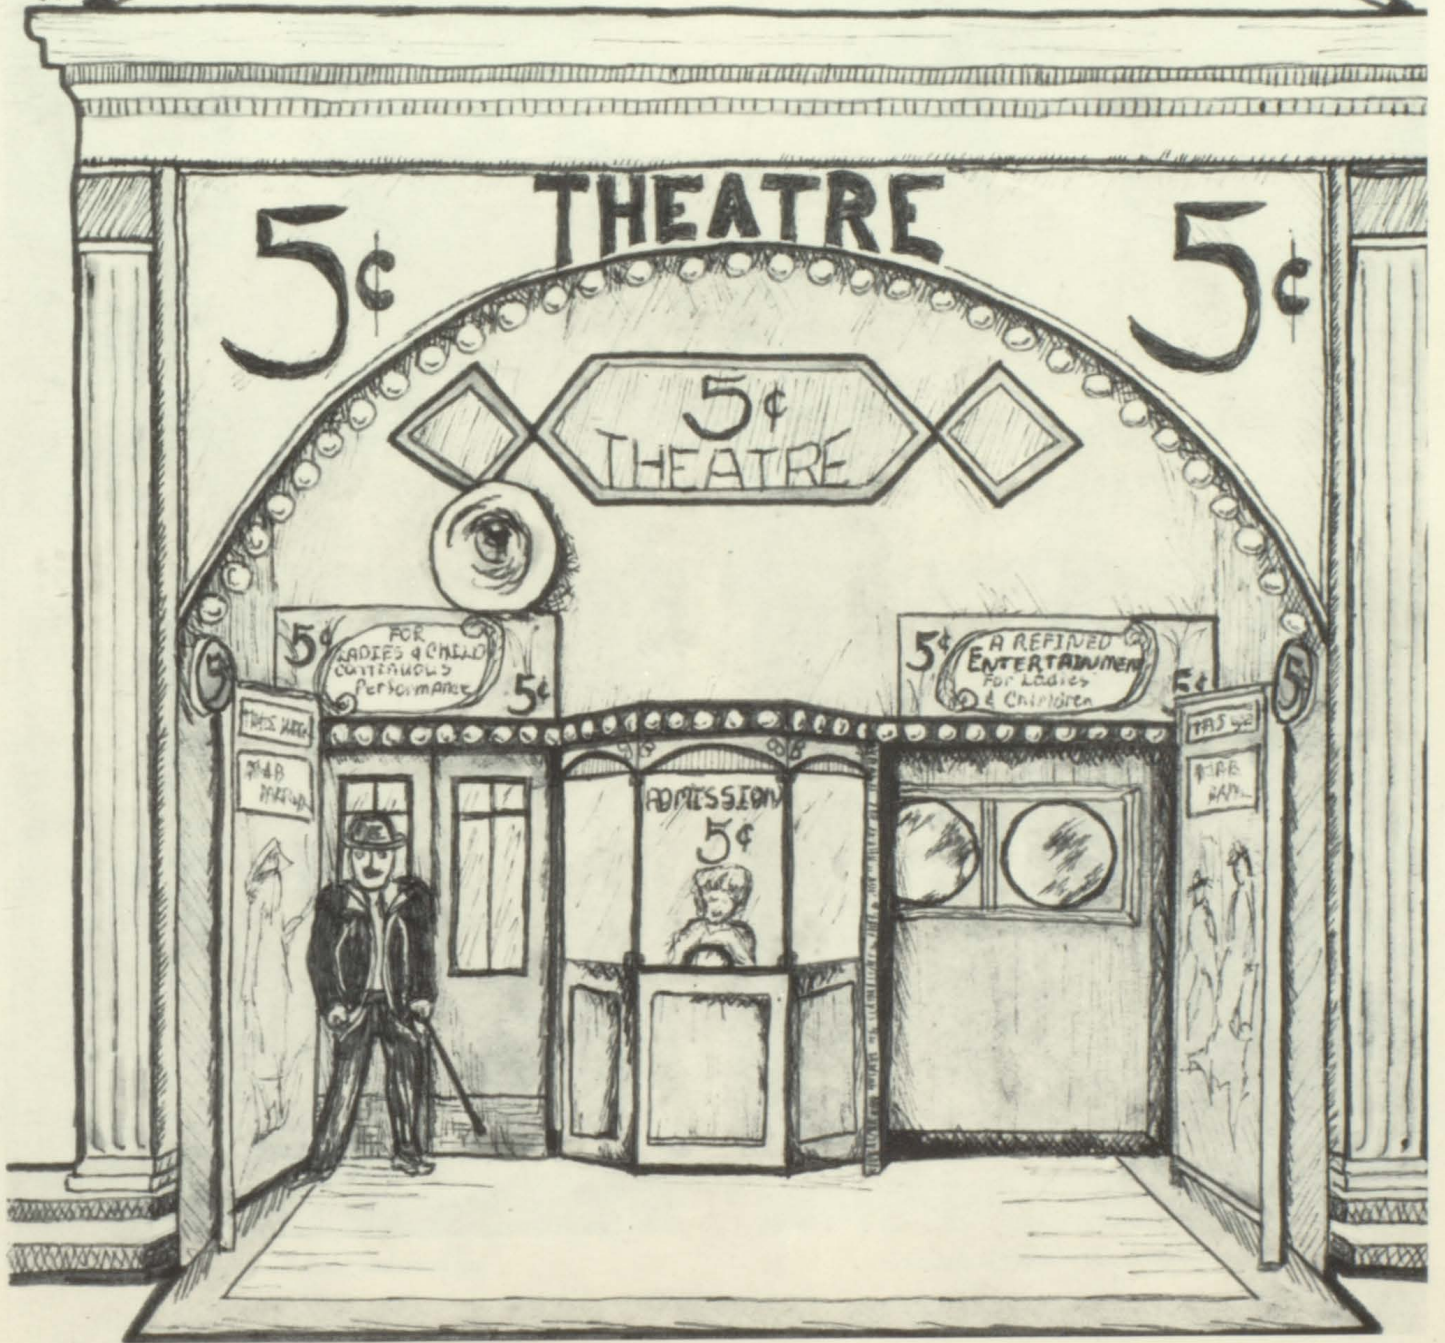

This year for the first time in history, Augusta is hosting a home meet.

A TIME FOR US

The time was an important factor for us as we started planning and decorating for the 1975 Junior Prom held April 19th. Representing our theme was a huge grandfather clock that was viewed in the center of the dance floor. In times to come we will be crossing many bridges as we did that night. For this will be a time that many of our classmates and friends will remember.

This year proved to be an interesting one for the music department. October 14 the Music Mothers held a bake sale at the Augusta Bank with the AHS Pep Band performing. Friday, October 17 they sponsored a dance in the gym. These projects are designed to raise money for a new piano and for summer Music Camp scholarships.

The Dairyland Band and Choir November 1 at the Whitehall Auditorium.

In November the Woodwind Quintet traveled to Alma Center. They demonstrated different types of woodwind music and gave the members of the Alma Center Band a chance to get acquainted with students from Augusta. The Quintet was available for community performances throughout the year.

This year two concerts were held for the Christmas season. The first featured the Jr. High Band and Choir, the Jazz Band, and the Woodwind Quintet. The second concert the Sr. Band and Choir and the Sax Quartet performed this traditional Christmas Concert.

Along with these concerts there was a special concert to celebrate the Bicentennial.

SCHOLARS OF TODAY AND TOMORROW

NHS

National Honor Society creates an enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulates a desire to render service, promotes worthy leadership, and encourages the development of character in pupils of Augusta. The faculty chooses members from a list of students with B or better averages. Students consider it an honor to be a member of NHS.

BOTTOM TO TOP: J. Kunz, D. Marcellis, D. Moldenhauer, P. Becker, M. Gabler, B. Anibas, S. Silvernail, D. Walker, J. Hoffman, L. Harden, R. Knuth, N. Starck, Advisor, Mr. Jacobson.

HIGH QUIZ BOWL

High Quiz Bowl participants are chosen for their quickness and ability to respond to a question accurately. Although the team did not compete on TV this year, we want to congratulate captain, Janice Hoffman, and her team. Thanks to Mrs. Silvernail for coaching them.

ADVISOR: Mrs. Silvernail, J. Hoffman, D. Hoffman, D. Walker, L. Karolus, B. Drehmel

The school year of 1975-76 marks the 51st year of Augusta High School's participation in the Wisconsin High School Forensic Association. The purpose of this organization is to stimulate an interest in various forms of speech, to improve the quality of high school speech work and to provide opportunities for competition through inter-school forensic activity.

Spring forensic events involve thirty-five students under the direction of Mrs. Mary Palm, assisted by Mrs. Kathryn Bugher. Thirty of these students will be participating in competitive events.

Invitational Tournaments will be held at Chipewewa Falls on February 28, at Durand on March 4, and at Stout University on April 10. The Dairyland Invitational at Osseo is scheduled for the evening of February 25. Contest dates include Saturday, March 13, Saturday, March 27, and Saturday, April 24.

On Wednesday, February 25, the team traveled to Osseo for the Dairyland Invitational and came home with the first place trophy. Congratulations to a job well done.

PEP CLUB BOOSTS SPIRIT

Pep Club members form the basis of the Augusta High School cheering section. This year 90 students joined. Activities for the year include: selling buttons, making posters, decorating the A-frame, and attending all sports events. Homecoming requires total involvement of the members. They perform in the parade; they organize all halftime activities; and they sponsor the dance following the game. The major responsibility is to generate spirit and enthusiasm at A.H.S. Members are: ROW 1: J. Sieg, A. Steadman, E. Pettis, J. Luedtke, A. Mierow, K. Weiss, S. Skoug, R. Rupprecht. ROW 2: T. Smith, L. Becker, J. Schultz, J. Lee, J. Weiss, K. Barka, W. Wilkinson, B. The GAA girls have kept busy this year by sponsoring a variety of sports and sports affiliated events. Starting off the year, GAA hosted the volleyball parents night, then came the fall baseball tournament, and Halloween party. One Monday every month is set aside for a sports night and for each event attended a designated amount of points are earned. If a member attends meetings and activities it is possible to build up enough points to merit a letter and trip at the end of the year. The advisor is Mrs. Diehl.

SITTING, LEFT TO RIGHT: J. Sieg, B. Anibas, A. Madsen. STANDING: N. Carlson, M. Shong.

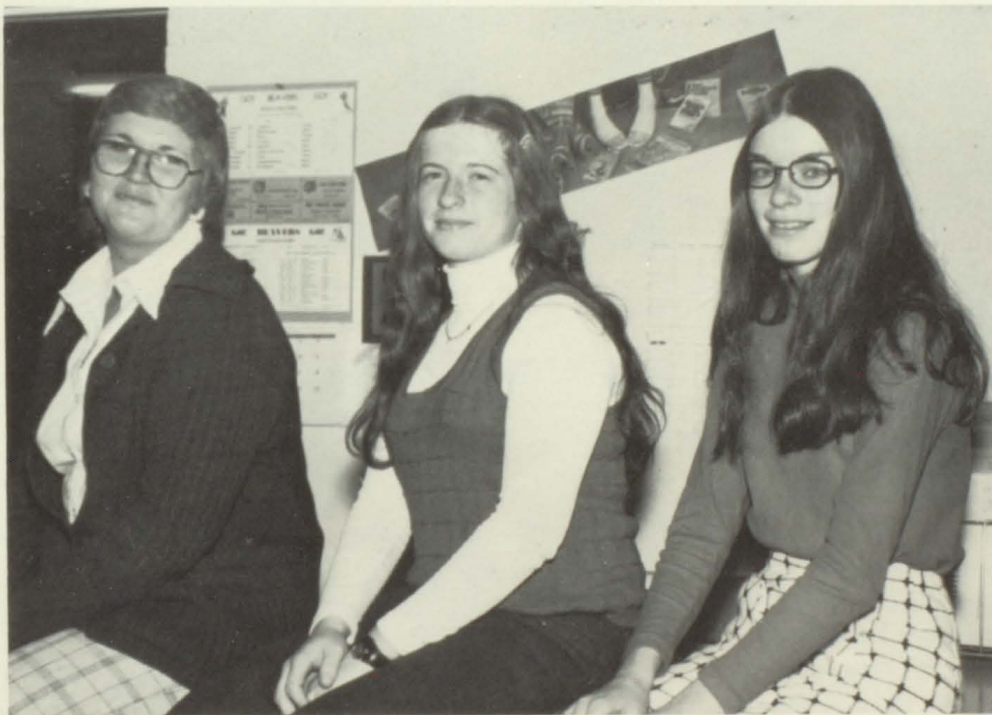

The Photo Club managed to make enough money during the last two years to buy their own textbooks, which are now being used by the members. Each meeting covers certain materials in the book and also includes some slides of films of relevant material. Brenda Anibas and Jeanne Sieg are both quite competent in the darkroom photography and other members will be learning this sort of thing as they study their texts.

COUNCIL PROMOTES GOOD LIBRARIANS

FRONT ROW: C. Marcellis, M. Herrick, B. Strauch, J. Hoffman, J. Kunz, D. Muszynski, C. Steinke, D. Muszynski, L. Bundy, Advisor: Mrs. Bugher.

President - Joy Kunz, V. President - Nancy Starck, Secretary and Treasurer - Diane Nehring

Library Council members play an important role in the Library. The aides are responsible for the magazines, books, and the A. V. materials. During the years, the seniors journeyed to the Northwestern State Librarian Convention held at Eau Claire North. They learned what school and student librarians felt created good and bad conditions in a library such as over-crowding and book selections. We all had an interesting and fun day.

A monthly bake sale is our fund raiser for this year. Everyone pitches in and does their share of the work. At the end of the year, we will give a scholarship to a senior who is going on to school. To finish the year, everyone relaxes and has a good time on our annual spring trip.

The Library Council would like to congratulate America on its 200th birthday.

The 1975-76 Future Homemakers of America is composed of 24 members of which 11 were freshmen just welcomed into the organization. The Annual Initiation practice was held in order to invite the mothers together and officially enter the new members. The Fall Rally was held at North High School, Eau Claire. Community efforts by the club includes a Halloween party for preschool and elementary school children. Stanley parties are popular for club members and other community women. This was a FHA fund raiser. Christmas caroling is enjoyed by both the group and older community members. Efforts are made at holidays to enlighten the lives of the residents of the nursing home, with small gifts. The FHA also joins with the FFA in making a float for homecoming or perhaps enjoy a winter party. The Banquet held at the end of the school year combines both groups. Representatives from the club are chosen each year to the State Convention at Green Lake. Best wishes to all for a successful Bicentennial year from the 1975-76 FHA.

DRAMA CLUB ACTS PROFESSIONALLY

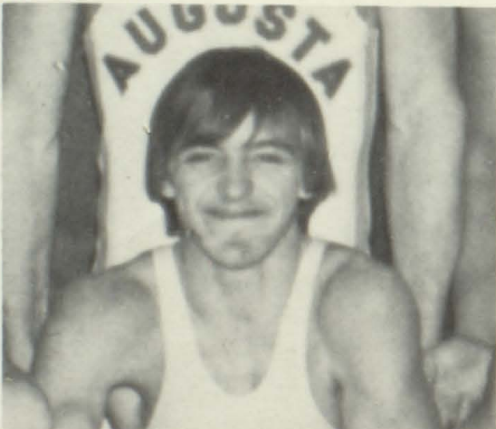

ROW 1: R. Weiss, S. Skoug, W. Wilkinson, C. Schmidt, K. Weiss. ROW 2: A. Mierow, K. Barka, S. Ida, T. Stanek, Mrs. Radke - Advisor. ROW 3: M. Shong, A. Steadman, B. Strauch, M. Rosentreter. ROW 4: D. Hoffman, D. Marcellis, T. Luedtke.

The Drama Club consists of students who are interested in developing their theatrical talents and performing them. A short Christmas play entitled SECOND SHEPHERD'S PLAY, was performed in front of the student body. This play was known as a miracle play which is the earliest form of drama. On Friday, March 26, and Saturday, March 27, the club presented the play STEPHEN VINCENT BENET'S STORIES OF AMERICA. The play is a history of America's settlement and development told through the works of Stephen Benet.

OFFICERS: Karen Barka - Secretary; Ann Mierow - President; Sue Skoug - Treasurer; Roger Weiss - Vice-President.

AUGUSTA SCHOOLS LOOK TO THE FUTURE

Since 1954 when an addition was built to provide a gym, music department, and some additional classrooms Augusta High School has continued to expand its opportunities for students providing an excellent education to all who are willing to pursue one.

Throughout the history of the school, we have had superintendents with the students best interest in mind: Archie K. Lyon from 1923 to 1932; F. G. MacLachland from 1933 to 1945; H. T. James from 1947 to 1949; J. J. Bichler from 1950 to 1954; Arthur A. Kopp from 1955 to 1958; Neil Fellrath from 1955 to 1962; Glen Dahl in 1963; and William Kean from 1964 to 1968. Mr. James Larson, the present superintendent was employed in 1969. In the seven years of his leadership, the school has built a vocational addition, offering opportunities in career courses for Augusta students as well as students from Altoona, Fall Creek, Osseo-Fairchild, and Eleva-Strum, a bus facility, an art center, and now a high school with an expanded media center to be completed in 1976.

Many extra-curricular activities have grown along with the school. Football started in 1902, basketball as early as the school, wrestling in 1962; and baseball. In addition, today we offer track and cross country for boys. At one time, there was a tennis team, but when the coach moved, the team folded.

Girls' sports started as early as the boys with a girls' basketball team competing with other schools earlier than 1914. Through the years this became an intramural sport, with GAA being organized to provide athletic competition for the girls. During the 1969 school year girls' teams were organized and competition began with other area schools in the fields of basketball, volleyball, softball, track and gymnastics.

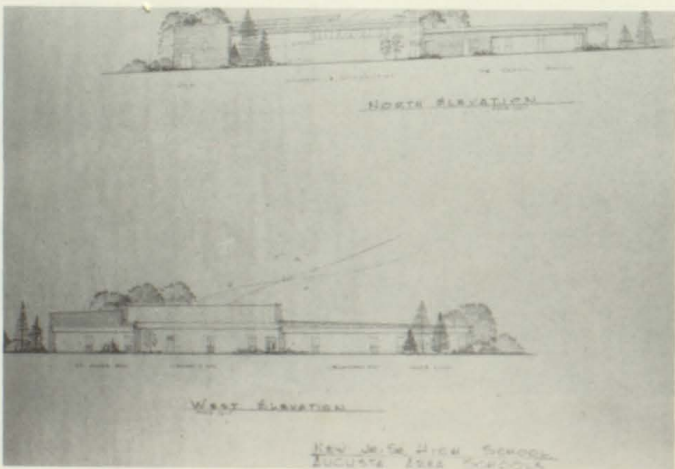

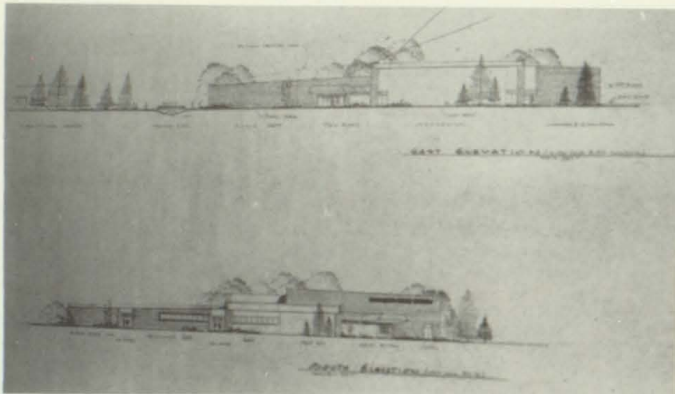

Organizations exist in all areas of interest for every student as the development of activities for leisure time is almost as necessary for the well-being of the students as education. Drama clubs and forensics have always been active with Augusta receiving many "A" ratings at district and state contests as well as entertaining the community. Activities in publications, home economics, Ag, audio visual, Photography, scholarships and athletics are available to all.

Community Committee helps plan the new school.

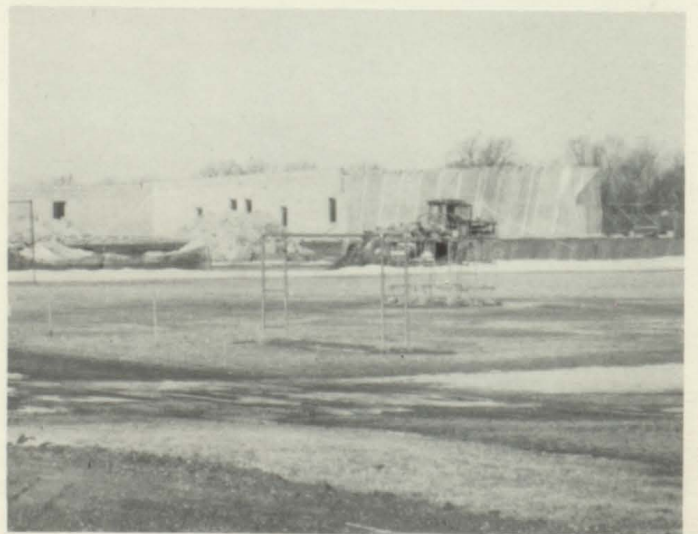

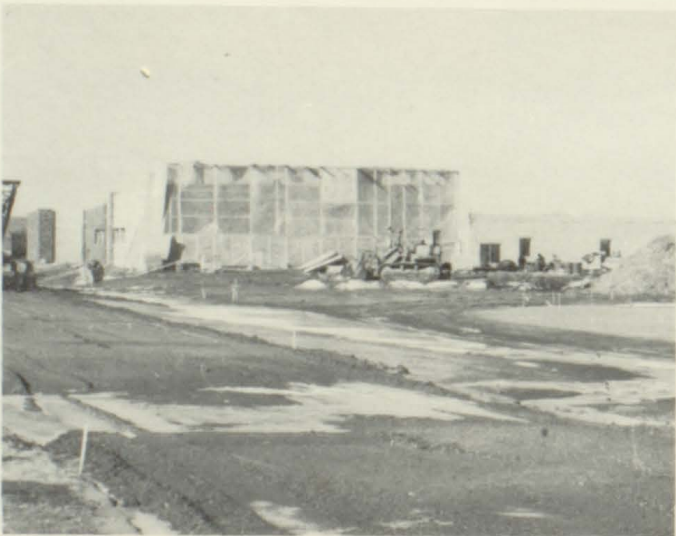

GROUND BREAKING: M. Hanson, G. Smith, J. Larson, G. Stanek, T. Henning, G. Lee, M. Thode.

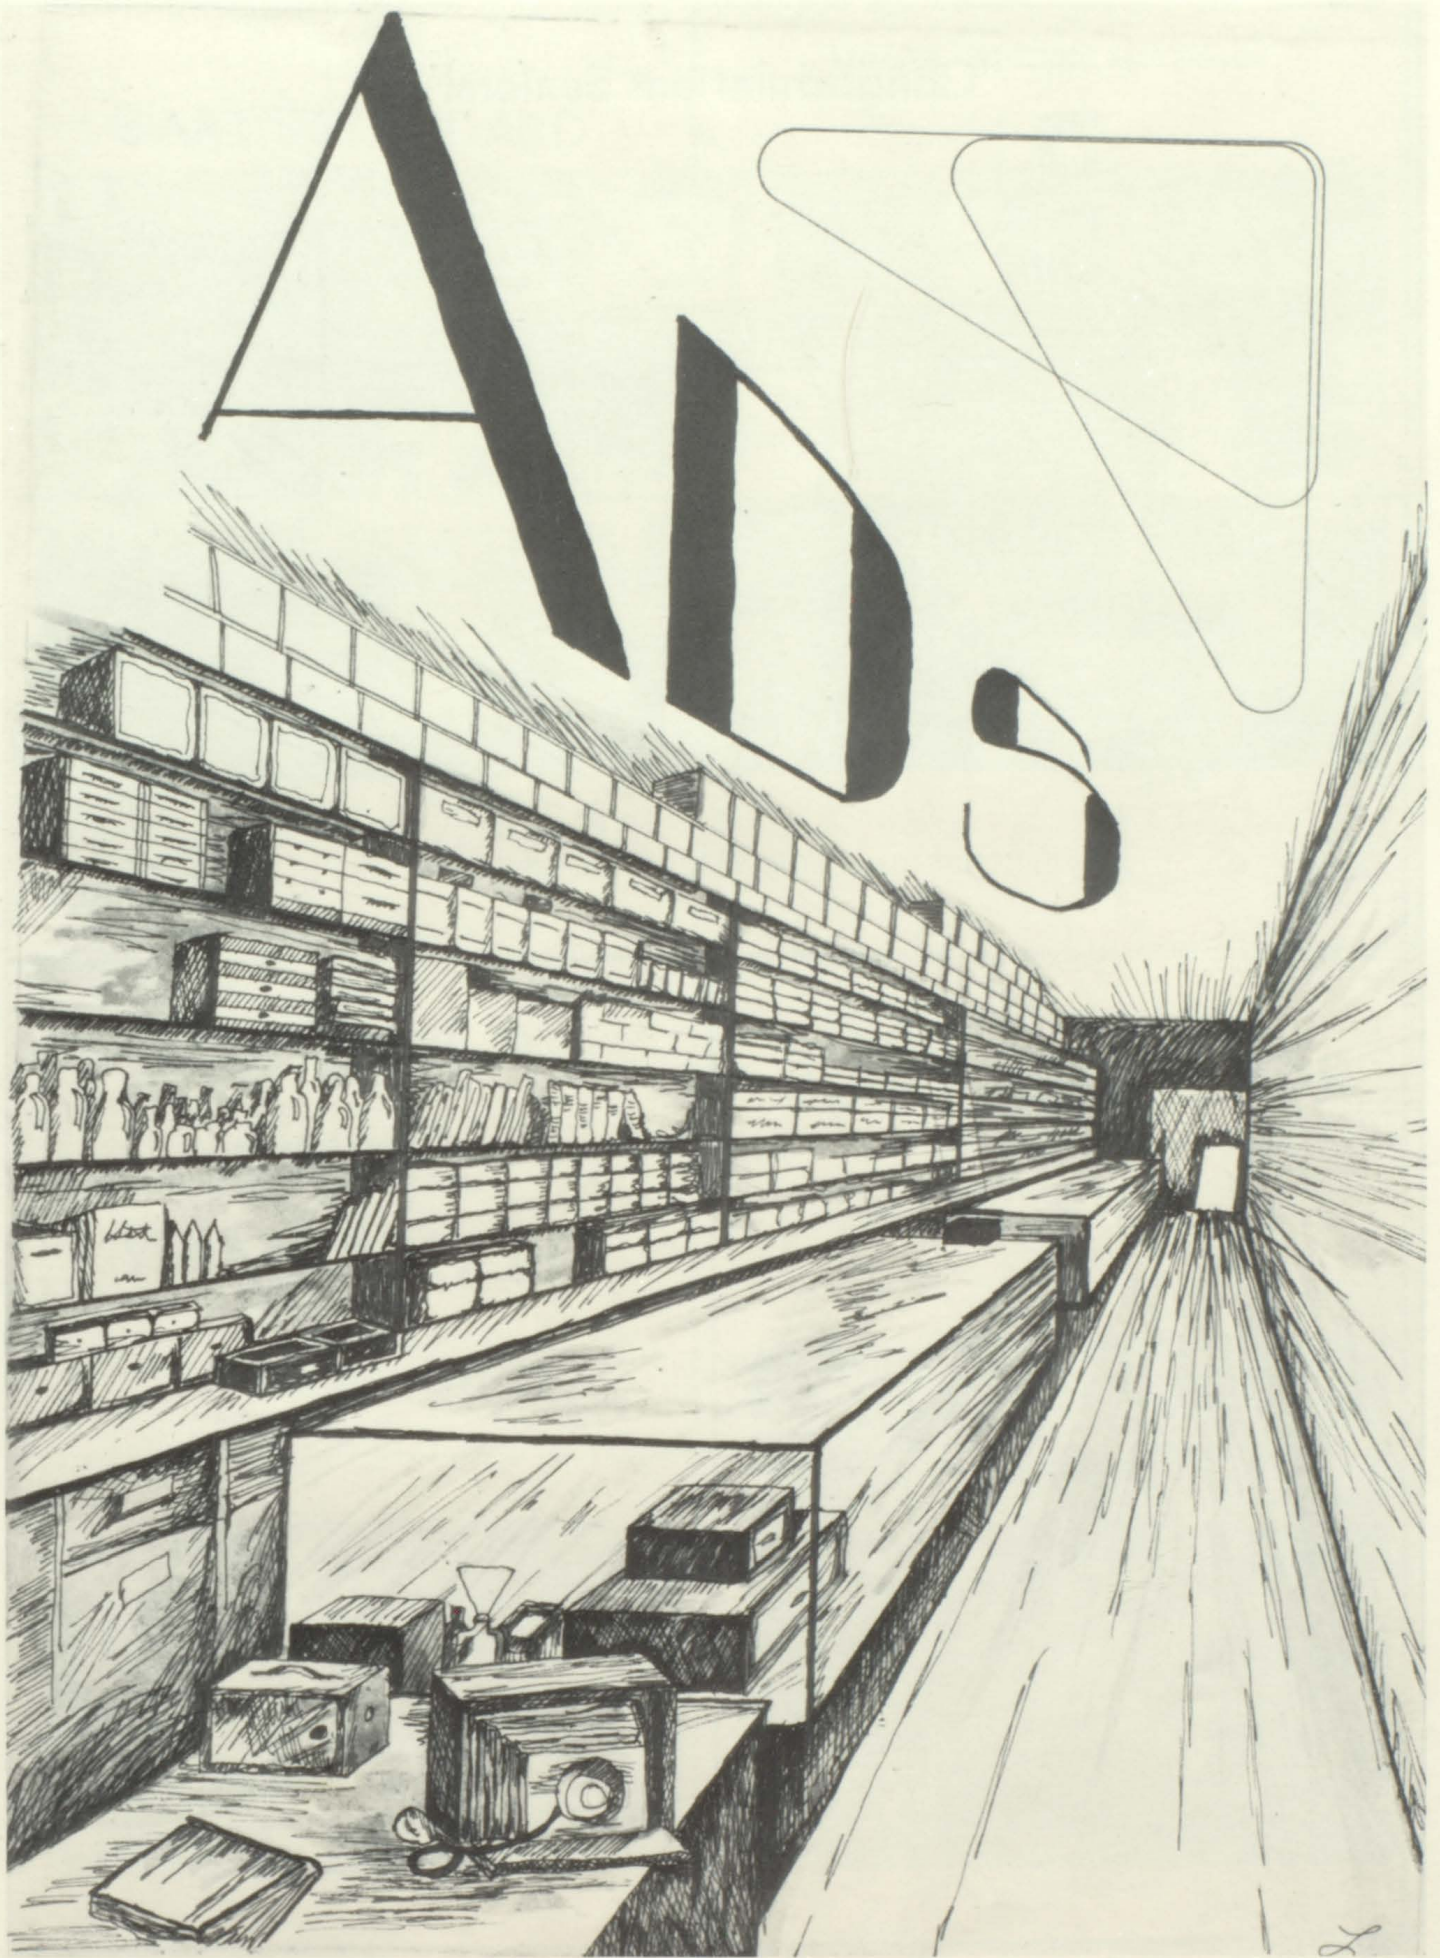

During these years the mode of transportation has changed from horse and buggy, requiring students to walk, or to board with someone in town during the week. Today large yellow buses creep along the highways and by-ways picking up students each morning and dropping them off again each evening. With the building of a separate elementary school on the old fair grounds by the overhead in 1964, the original building on Main Street has been used only as a junior and senior high school. At this time the rural school youngsters were also brought into the new school.

In 1975, the community voted to build a high school as the present building is out-of-date, crowded, and seems to be falling apart at the seams. The first plan included a swimming pool and an auditorium, but these were omitted in the plan that was finally okayed. From wood stoves and slates to air conditioning and television, from 'reading, 'writing, and 'arithmetic to reason, rhythm, and logarithms, the Augusta Schools continue to grow and keep place with the world.
