Nineteen Eighty Four

In Memory Of . . .

The class of 1984 wishes to dedicate our annual to those members of our class who were unable to share this part of our lives with us, Benji Tarbox and Donna Schmidt. May their memories never leave our hearts.

The leaves were falling,
It was cold that day
As some of our friends went far, far away.

We treasure the memories
of the times that we knew
They were a part of our lives
We'll miss them, it's true.

Kati Warner

WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN

We've only just begun to live,
White lace and promises
A kiss for luck and we're on our way.
And yes, we've just begun.

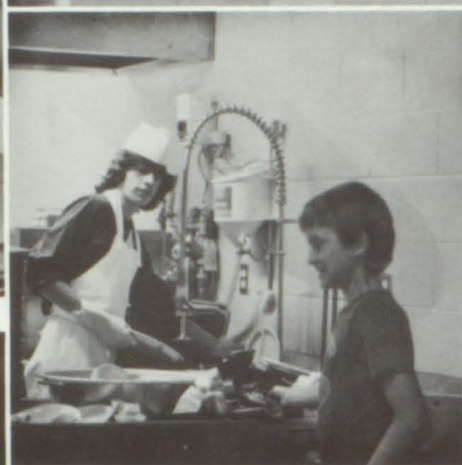

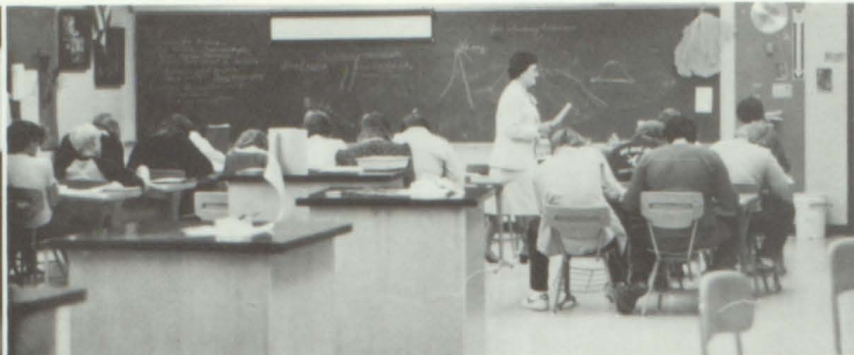

Before the rising sun we fly,
So many roads to choose
We start our walking and learn to run.
And yes, we've just begun.

Sharing horizons that are new to us,
Watching the signs along the way,
Talking it over just the two of us,
Working together day by day.
Together.

And when the evening comes we smile,
So much of life ahead
We'll find a place where there's room to grow.
And yes, we've just begun.

My assignment? Well ah . . .

The Bobbsie Twins

As the class of '87 burst on the scene advised by Mrs. Oestrich, Mrs. Erickson and Mr. Guthman, they brought their enthusiasm with them. Whether it was in hall artwork or sports they showed their many hidden talents underlying their quiet exterior. The freshmen had a wild magazine sale and were locked in the YMCA overnight.

finally finished?!!!

THE END

At the close of a book we usually find two little words
. . . the end.

For the class of "84"
this annual marks the end of many years of laughter and tears —
success and failures.

But it also marks
a new beginning . . .
Some of us will begin a new journey of college life, other will marry and build families of their own.

Whatever our decision, we will all carry memories of our high school days.

Friends old and new,
Years gone by.

The time has come now,
To say Good-Bye.
